

Police officer not allowed to resume duty

From The Tribune Bureau
CHANDIGARH, April 9 — Mr S.P.S. Rathore, D.I.G. (Modernisation), Haryana, who has obtained from the Supreme Court stay of the State Government's order placing his services at the disposal of the Centre, has not been allowed to resume duty.

Informed sources say Mr Rathore served the orders of the Supreme Court on the State Government on April 3. Since then he has been visiting his office but finds it locked. The keys of his office are said to be in the custody of another D.I.G.

The sources maintain that Mr Rathore visits the Director-General of Police daily and informs him about it. He has also written a letter to him saying that he has not been able to join duty as his office is locked.

During the past week Mr Rathore has written four letters to the Director-General of Police and obtained the signatures of his P.A. He is still waiting for the orders of the Government for opening his office.

Chowk Mehta shrine "shelters killers"

From Our Staff Correspondent
AMRITSAR, April 9 — The S.S.P. Mr. Ishar Alam, has informed the Dandami Taksal officiating head, Baba Thakur Singh, that Gurdwara Gurdarshan Parkash at Chowk Mehta, where he resides, is being used as the "headquarters" of a gang of robbers and killers.

Disclosing this at a Press conference here today, Mr Alam said this fact came to light after the interrogation of four youths who were part of a nine-member gang. Their leader, the interrogation revealed, was Surjit Singh "jathedar" of the langar at the Chowk Mehta gurdwara. The four arrested were Parmjit Singh, alias Panna, Narinder Singh, Kuldeep Singh and Baj Singh. They owed allegiance to "Tat Khalsa", which was once headed by Avtar Singh Brahma, who now headed the "Khalistan Liberation Force" in place of "General" Anand Singh.

The district police chief said it was quite possible that the gang was operating without the knowledge of Baba Thakur Singh, who was on record as having said time and again that the Taksal had nothing to do with those gangs which indulged in robberies or snatched away firearms from village officers. Baba Thakur Singh was arrested about the gang by a police officer.

Mr Alam said: "We have asked for handing over to the police the other members of the gang living in Gurdwara Gurdarshan Parkash. They are Surjit Singh, Waryam Singh and Ajmer Singh. Waryam Singh belongs to Bure-Nangal village in Gurdaspur district. Ajmer Singh belongs to the Khem Karan area and Surjit Singh hails from some village in Rajasthan."

There was another member of the gang — Jawant Singh, alias Jassa, a resident of Talwandi Dasandha Singh village.

The equation between the Taksal and the "Khalistan Liberation Force" is intriguing. According to the police, the latter is aligned with the "President" faction of the A.I.S.S.F. while the "Khalistan Commando Force" owes allegiance to the Gurjit Singh faction of the

A-I.S.S.F. and also the "Panthic Committee", which Baba Joginder Singh has never recognised.

Asked about the new allegations as per the interrogation of the four youths, Mr Alam said: "This is something to be probed."

Mr Alam presented at the Press conference Ajit Singh, a local resident, who works in a paper-making unit. He was arrested for his alleged involvement in the killing of Narinder Nandi who, the police believed, was killed in the Golden Temple complex on March 25. His name was yet to be found.

Mr Alam alleged Ajit Singh to speak to the Press in his office. Ajit Singh, it was learnt, was an employee of the SGPC between 1968 and 1983. He was dismissed on the charge of being a pickpocket.

Ajit Singh said he went into the Golden Temple complex on March 25 to seek "payment" (relief) for the death of his father, who was killed during Operation Bluebird in 1984. There he saw a lot of commosoon, according to him, Nandi appeared on the scene. There was a brief argument between Nandi and Harbajan Singh, Office Secretary of the A-I.S.S.F. (President). Thereafter Nandi was dragged into a basement and strangled.

Mr Alam said Ajit Singh also had a part in the killing. "He cut off Nandi's legs."

Bimal Khalsa's prayer declined

From The Tribune Bureau
CHANDIGARH, April 9 — Mrs Bimal Khalsa, widow of Bhai Singh, one of the assassins of Mrs Indira Gandhi, was today produced in the court of the Additional District Sessions Judge, Mr K.S. Aggarwal, in connection with a case registered against her by the local police under Sections 145 and 133-A, I.P.C., and Sections 3 and 4 of the Terrorism and Disruptive Activities (Prevention) Act, 1985.

Mr Aggarwal adjourned the case till April 19 as he was unable to be present due to the death of his father, who was killed during Operation Bluebird in 1984. There he saw a lot of commo-

Mr Aggarwal declined the prayer of Mrs Bimal Khalsa that she should be lodged at Burali jail instead of Patiala jail.

"Khalistanis" gets life term

LONDON, April 9 (PTI) — Sulakshan Singh Surai, a "Khalistan" activist, was sentenced to life imprisonment for his involvement in the conspiracy to liquidate Mr Sohan Singh Lodon, a Congress (I) supporter, in Lodon.

Godowns near campus; teachers sore

From The Tribune Bureau
CHANDIGARH, April 9 — A deputation of five professors of Punjab University, Patiala, led by Dr. S.S. Pabli, President of the local Urban Estate Residents Association, today met the Chief Minister, Mr Surjit Singh Barna, and the Chief Secretary, Mr P.H. Vashnava, to protest against the construction of five godowns near the Punjab Warehousing Corporation near the Punjab University campus.

These teachers said the godowns were being built between the university campus and the Urban Estate, Phase I and II, Patiala. The Urban Estate was planned to provide clean and ideal housing where university teachers, engineers, Government officers and doctors had invested large sums of money on building houses.

The land was originally meant for Yadavindra Public School. In 1959 the then PERSU Government had acquired 120 acres for Rs 84,000. In 1968-69, the Punjab Government sold the land to the Urban Estate Phases I and II, and had served notice on the P.S. management which urged the Government order through a petition.

in the High Court pleading that the P.S. needed 110 acres and not part of it could be spared for the Urban Estate. The school management also argued that it had already spent Rs 16,000 on the preparation of plans for the school. So this land was excluded from the acquisition proceedings.

On March 12 last one-tenth of the land (about 12 acres) was sold at about Rs 1.5 lakh per acre to the Punjab Warehousing Corporation by the Y.P.S.

The deputations said this land deal was against the law. The construction of godowns was a great environmental hazard. In spite of the directions given by the Director of Housing and Urban Development to the Warehousing Corporation on April 3 last to stop the construction of godowns, building work was going on at full speed. In the Master Plan of Patiala this area had been earmarked for educational and research institutions.

They said the Government should not allow construction of godowns in the vicinity of the university campus and the university

Mulkh Raj to replace S.P.

From The Tribune Bureau
CHANDIGARH, April 9 — 3rd Battalion, Haryana Armed Police, is likely to replace Mr R.K. Vashner, Superintendent of Police (Security and Vigilance), Chandigarh.

Mr Mulkh Raj is one of the three officers whose names were sent to the Chandigarh Administration by the Haryana Government a few months ago for selecting Mr Vashner's successor. The other two officers are Mr H.K.L. Dewan, S.P. (Security) and Mr Rajbir Singh Rajain, Commandant 6th Battalion, Haryana Armed Police.

Although Mr Mulkh Raj was selected by the Administration several weeks ago, it did not care to convey its decision to the Haryana Government. Now that the Haryana Government has ordered the posting orders of Mr Vashner and has asked the Administration to relieve him immediately, the Chandigarh Administration is likely to take its decision tomorrow.
